

Hospice Eligibility

Dementia

A patient with dementia may be eligible for hospice if:

- Condition is worsened by other serious illness
- Frequent pneumonia due to aspiration
- Urinary tract infections are common
- Sepsis is present
- Bedsores are present
- Weight loss is unintentional
- Needs help with daily living activities
- Communication is severely limited
- Cannot walk without assistance
- Incontinent
- Fever does not respond to treatment
- Socially withdrawn

Hospice
of Southwest Ohio
A Servant Leadership Organization

Referral Support
513-271-4796